How can we make the Nashua Region the best place to live, learn, work, and play for everyone?

Be a part of a thoughtful and informative community conversation about the future of our communities, our region, and our state.

Land Use ~ Transportation ~ Economic Development ~ Infrastructure ~ Housing
Public Health ~ Energy ~ Cultural, Historic, and Natural Resources ~ Education ~ Government

Tuesday, April 30, 2013
Nashua Senior Center
70 Temple Street
6:00 Sign in and Refreshments
6:30 – 9:00 Program

Register at tinyurl.com/RegisterListening

or by calling NH Listens at 603.862.0692

Nashua Regional Planning Commission is committed to engaging everyone to identify local assets, needs and ways to effectively use limited government resources. Community conversations are being designed and hosted by NH Listens and UNH Cooperative Extension.

All perspectives are welcome and we hope you will join us!
On-site childcare available

Several of these conversations will be taking place statewide. For additional event dates and locations go to:
http://granitestatefuture.org/

University of New Hampshire
Cooperative Extension