ABUTTER LIST

Abutter—Any person whose property is located in New Hampshire and adjoins or is directly across the street, stream, or active railroad property from the land under consideration by the local land use board.
 For purposes of receiving testimony only, and not for purposes of notification, the term "abutter" shall include any person who is able to demonstrate that his/her land will be directly affected by the proposed under consideration.
For purposes of receipt of notification by a municipality of a local land use board hearing in the case of an abutting property being under a condominium or other collective form of ownership, the term "abutter" means the officers of the collective or association, as defined in RSA 256-B:2, XXVIII. For purposes of receipt of notification by a municipality of a local land use board hearing, in the case of an abutting property being under a manufactured housing park owner and the tenants who own manufactured housing which adjoins or is directly across the street, stream, or active railroad from the land under consideration by the local land use board, for purposes of receipt of notification by a municipality of a local land use board hearing, in the case of an abutting property being an active railroad property, the owner of the railroad property shall be notified. For purposes of receipt of notification by a municipality of a local land use board hearing, in the case where the applicant is different from the owner of the land under consideration by the local land use board, the term "abutter" includes the applicant.
