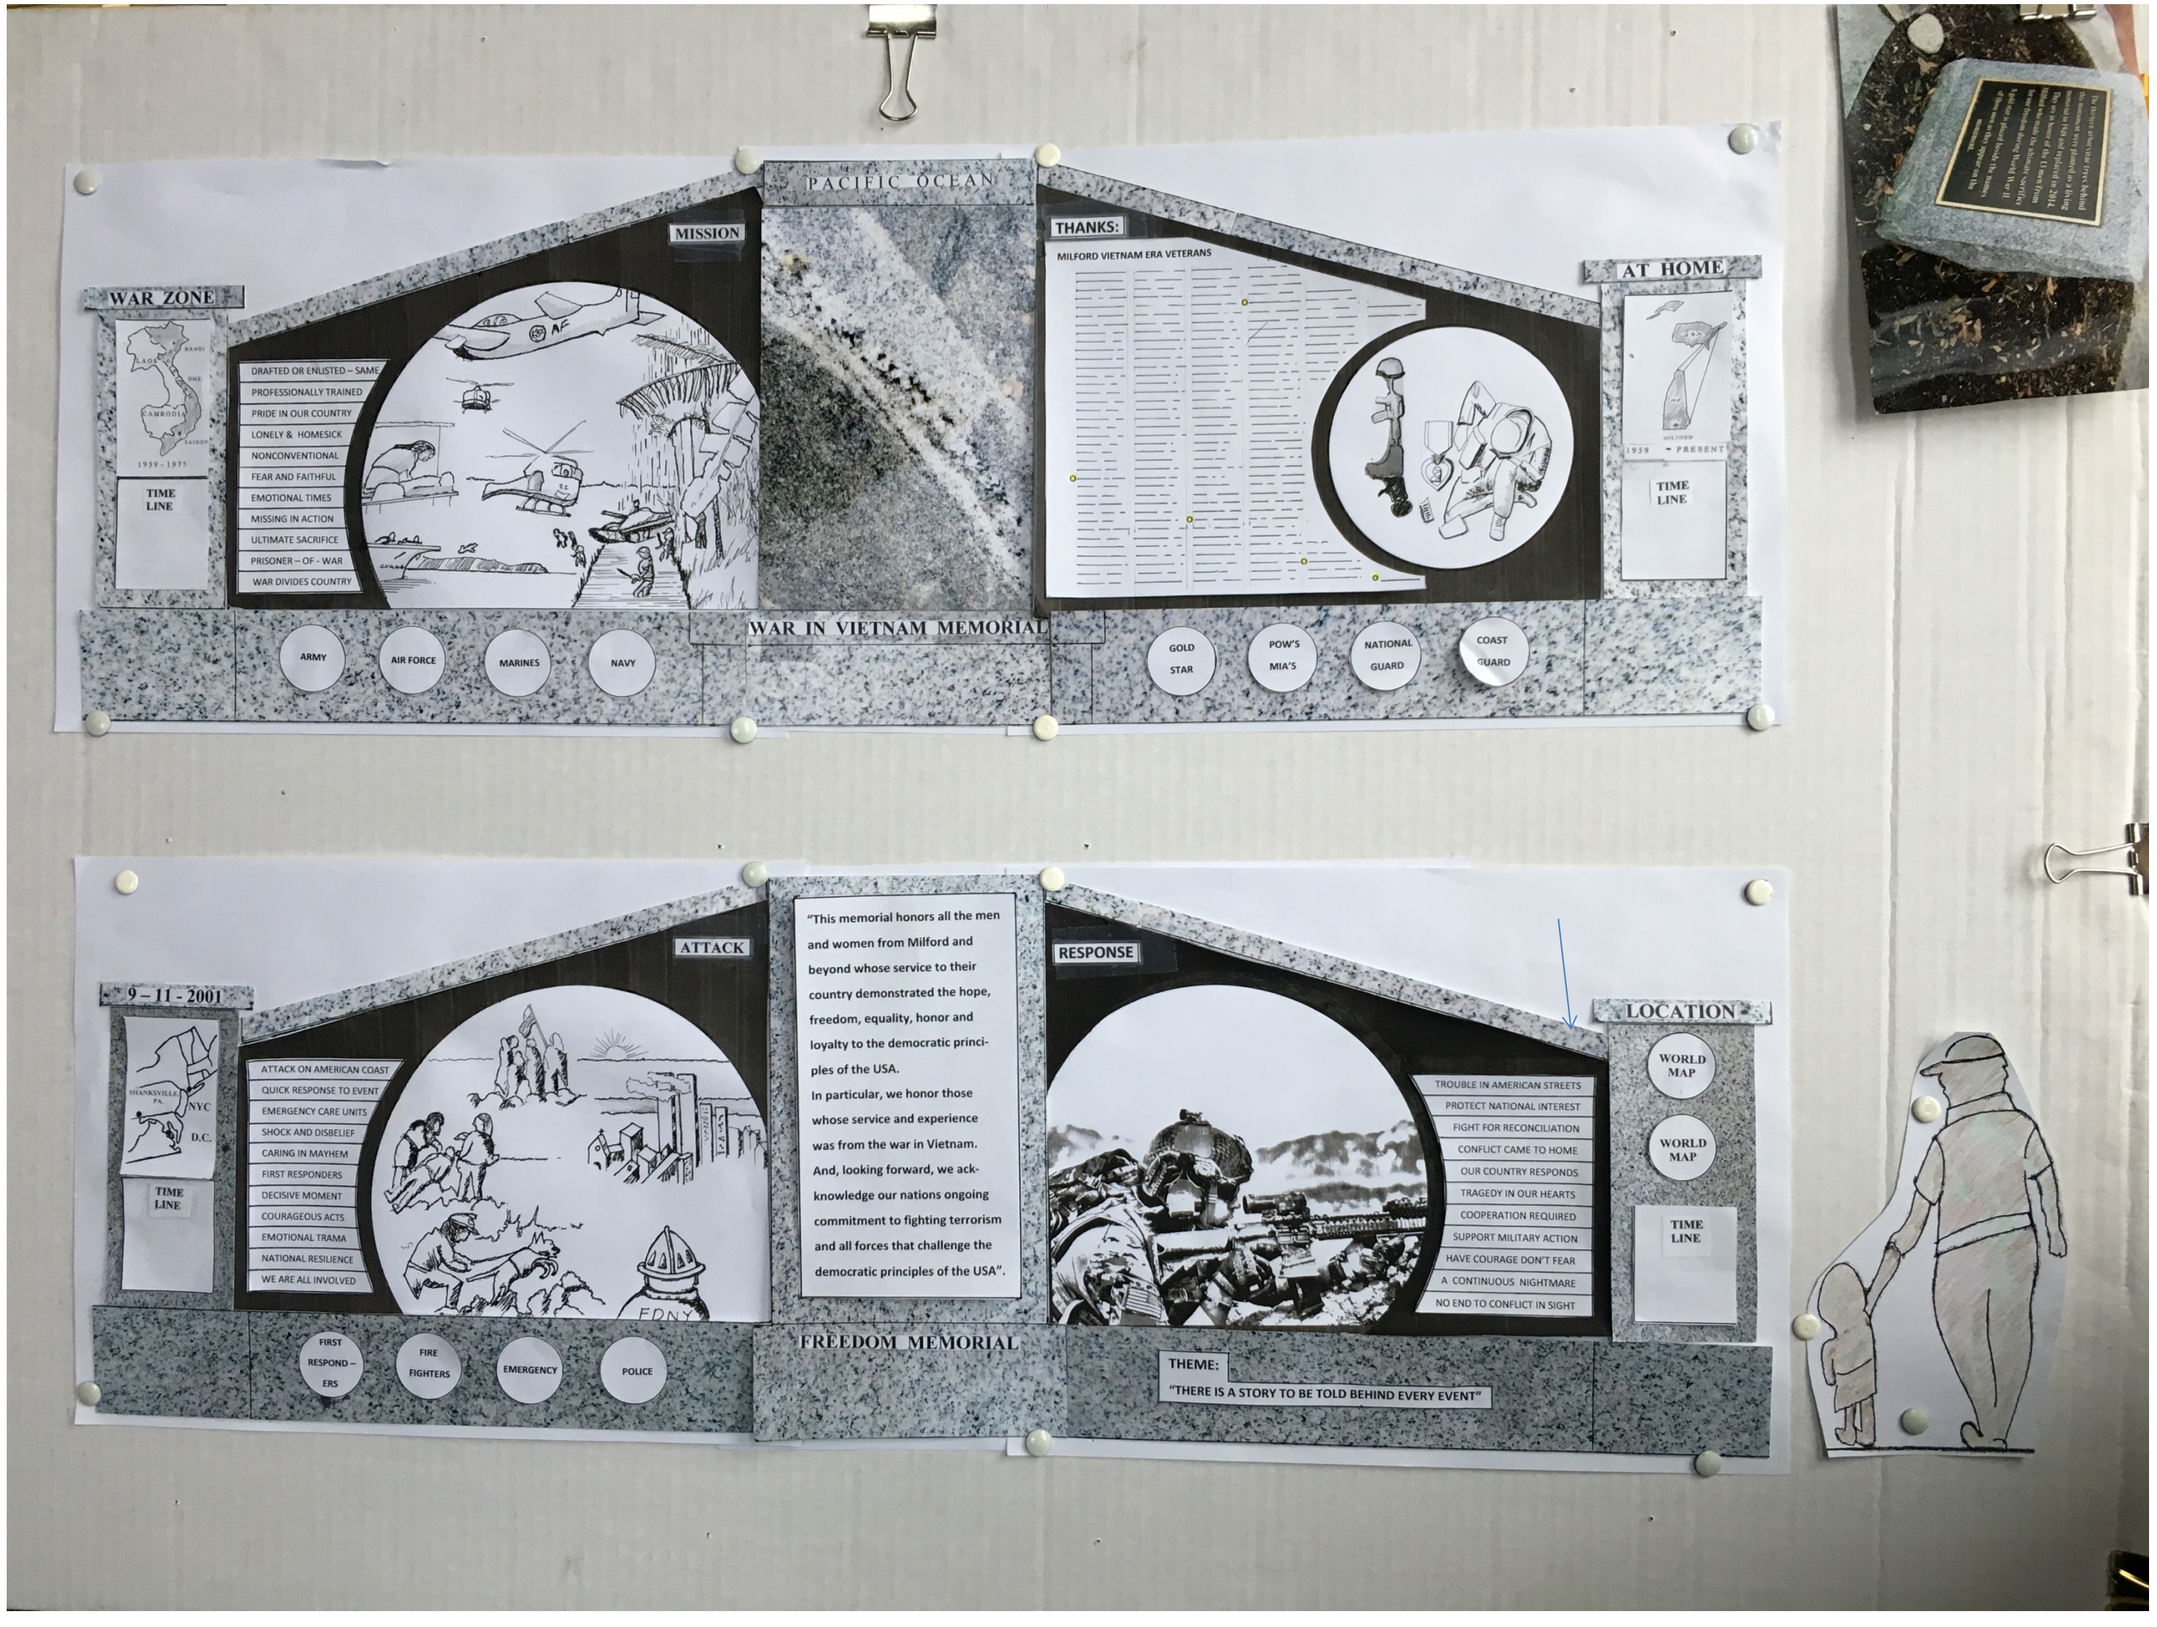
Linear Design

Updated (4.30.18)

The following represents the most current iteration of the conceptual linear/uniform design theme and displays a variety of imagery and verbiage under consideration.


Also shown in the top and bottom right corners are potential examples of a monument that would be dedicated to the individual Milford residents who died while serving in the War in Vietnam and conceptual bronze statue of an adult and child visiting the memorial.